

College Action Plan, 2009 - 2010

The 18 month period. These college-wide objectives provide direction for and will be supported by, the development of divisional, department and campus plans. The College Action Plan identifies both new initiatives and some ongoing activities that are expected to require significant attention on the part of the College during the time period. The annual budget process for the 2010/11 fiscal year will seek to support the achievement of these priorities.

In addition to the specific objectives noted below, the College will also be on responding effectively across the College to the increased student enrolment and service demands being driven by the 2008-2009 economic recession, while maintaining a longer-term perspective for program, service and college financial sustainability.
